Bulletin Notes

The Berean Class launched their "Win One" campaign last Tuesday evening at a delightful banquet served by the Ladies' Aid in the "Gym". Woodfin Patrick presided and short talks were made by Messrs. Riley, Conners, Walther, the Pastor, and R. V. Richardson. The singing of the Quartet, composed of Messrs. Burbank, Merrell, Alexander, and Hicks, was much enjoyed.

Does the "Religious Herald" come to your home? If not, the Pastor would be glad to receive your subscription ($2.50) and have it sent to you.

In this, our first issue of the Bulletin, may occur some mistakes, especially in the Church Directory. If such is the case, they will soon be corrected.

It is requested that the following committee, appointed a few weeks ago, please report to the Church Treasurer: John R. Patrick, Horace Pearce, W. T. Bowen, R. V. Richardson, W. B. Nelms, H. S. Houston, G. W. Askew, H. B. Smith, J. W. Davis, R. F. Slaughter, Chas. A. Walther, T. T. Vinson, A. B. Conners.

The little Drama, "An Old-fashioned Mother" will be given by students of Buchanan Mountain Mission School on Thursday evening, March 9th, at 7:30, in the Sunday school building of Hampton Baptist Church. Tickets can be bought at Mr. Smith's.

Mrs. R. A. Henderson will address the W. M. S. on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
